- A non-refundable deposit toward one term's fees is required to secure Year 7 places - payable as requested.
- There may be additional costs to parents for activities such as co-curricular programs, excursions, some Student Opportunity Week camps and elective subjects.

PAYING FEES

Payment of school fees can be made via BPAY (preferred option), Cheque or Money Order (payable to 'Northern Beaches Christian School'), telephone, Electronic Direct Transfer, or in person at Main Reception. Receipts are not issued unless requested, except where payment has been made in cash.

School Fees must be paid by the due date on each invoice, including school tuition and other ancillary charges. If School Fees are not paid within the period specified then administration fees will be charged by the School as follows: First overdue account notice $60-, Second overdue account notice $150-, Fees outstanding at the end of term will attract a further $250- overdue administrative fee.

If School Fees are not paid by the date specified, the School has the right to suspend or terminate enrolment. Repayment of the debt cannot be refused by reason of any allegation or complaint relating to the services provided by the School, nor by reason of any set-off or cross claim made against the School. The collection process for any outstanding fees may involve placing the matter into the hands of a solicitor.
