FOCUS AREA

Apparel

My design is a bold and sophisticated double-breasted coat and knife pleated skirt. The garments are designed for the focus area of apparel, to be worn as formal evening wear.

My design incorporates elements of the traditional Scottish kilt and the double-breasted coat of the 1930s. The combination of these elements makes my design a modern combination of various historical and cultural elements.

The traditional masculine silhouette of the coat jacket is contrasted by the feminine and powerful structure of the pleated skirt.
